High School Basketball games to air on Channel 30

For the first time, Tri-Valley Community Television (TVCTV) plans to broadcast four Tri-Valley high basketball games on TV 30. The games will be taped on Friday nights and air the next day. The first game airing on Saturday January 28th at 7pm will be the Dublin at Dougherty Valley game. Tri-Valley Sports Final personalities Ian Bartholomew and George "Dr. B" Baljevich will be providing commentary.

Dates and air times are as follows for the full game schedule:

January 28	7pm	Dublin at Dougherty Valley
February 4	7pm	Foothill at Livermore
February 11	7pm	Amador Valley at California
February 18	7pm	Granada at Livermore

"TVCTV promotes positive activities that students are involved in," said Melissa Tench-Stevens, TVCTV Executive Director. "We just finished our third year of televising high school football games and are pleased to be able to offer these four basketball games in our lineup."

Tri-Valley TV will be broadcasting the games on Comcast TV 30, AT&T U-Verse via channel 99 and streaming at trivalleytv.org. In addition, the games may be viewed via Video on Demand at our website the following week. DVDs of the games may also be purchased via the website.
